JOIN!

LEAD THE CHANGE, BRIDGE THE CULTURES: BECOME THE ARCHITECT OF GLOBAL TRANSFORMATION!

What is SGH.FutureLeaders.Bridge?

Join the prestigious International Intensive Training Programme (IMPK), designed for the next generation of leaders from high-potential developing countries. This programme offers more than just a course; it provides a simulation of the future. It gives you the tools to master leadership in the 21st century, navigate global business contexts, and drive sustainable innovation.

Why join?

- Future-ready competencies: Focus on critical skills like analytical thinking, resilience, and AI use.
- Advanced business simulation: Test your strategic decisions in a 24-hour customized game focused on ESG and innovation.
- Digital certification: Be among the first to earn a digital badge—a globally recognized micro-credential.
- Multicultural networking: Work in international teams, bridging cultural and economic contexts from Europe, Africa, and Asia
- Learn from a global network: Our classes aren't just local. You will learn from a diverse panel of visiting lecturers selected from top institutions.
- Mentorship: Benefit from the guidance of SGH academic faculty who serve as independent assessors, ensuring your leadership development meets international standards.

Who are we looking for?

Ambitious students (1st cycle – BA) from countries like Ukraine, Georgia, Moldova, Vietnam, Thailand, Morocco, South Africa, Mauritius and more.

We particularly encourage female candidates to apply as part of our commitment to diversity and equal opportunity.
